

Nathan Boyd Tenney, 90 years young, of Prescott, AZ, passed away December 6, 2005 at Arizona Pioneer Home. Born June 22, 1915 in Stanley, AZ, he was described as "Arizona's Cowboy Senator" in an article published by the Tenney Times in January 2001 (for reprints, request issue #20). He served with the Arizona legislature for 20 years and had a colorful style of wearing a Stetson with his suits. He was also a rancher and a feed store business owner under the name Tenney Feed and Livestock.
